

Above—Mrs. William Astor Chanler, photographed aboard La France just before she sailed for Europe.
Copyright, Paul Thompson.

The new Countess of Minto, formerly Miss Marion Cook, in her wedding gown. The marriage, January 19 last, was the great event of Canada's social year.
Photo, Millar Studio.

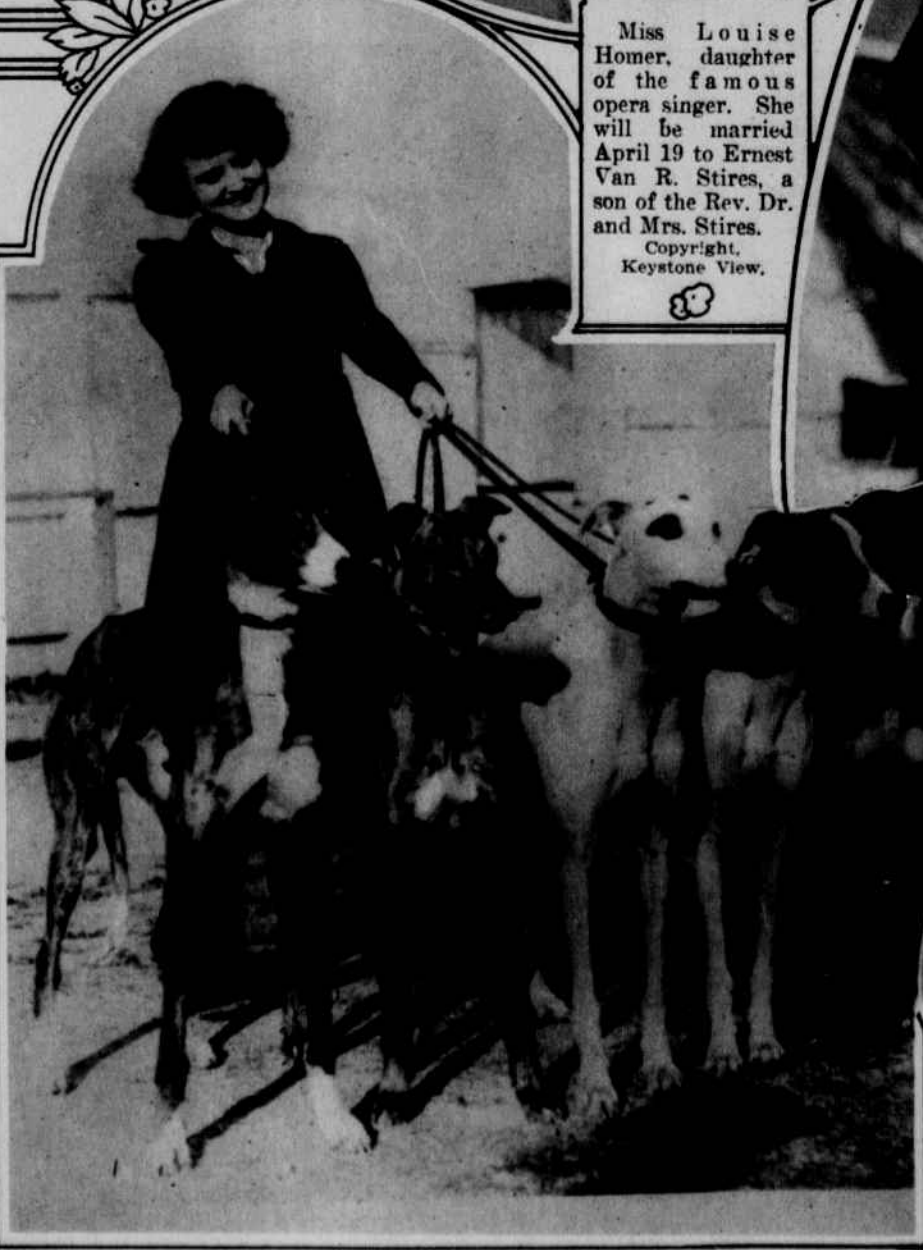

Mme. Lucrezia Bori, opera star, photographed aboard the Imperator. Her voice is better than ever and she sings with the Metropolitan company.
Photo, Paul Thompson.

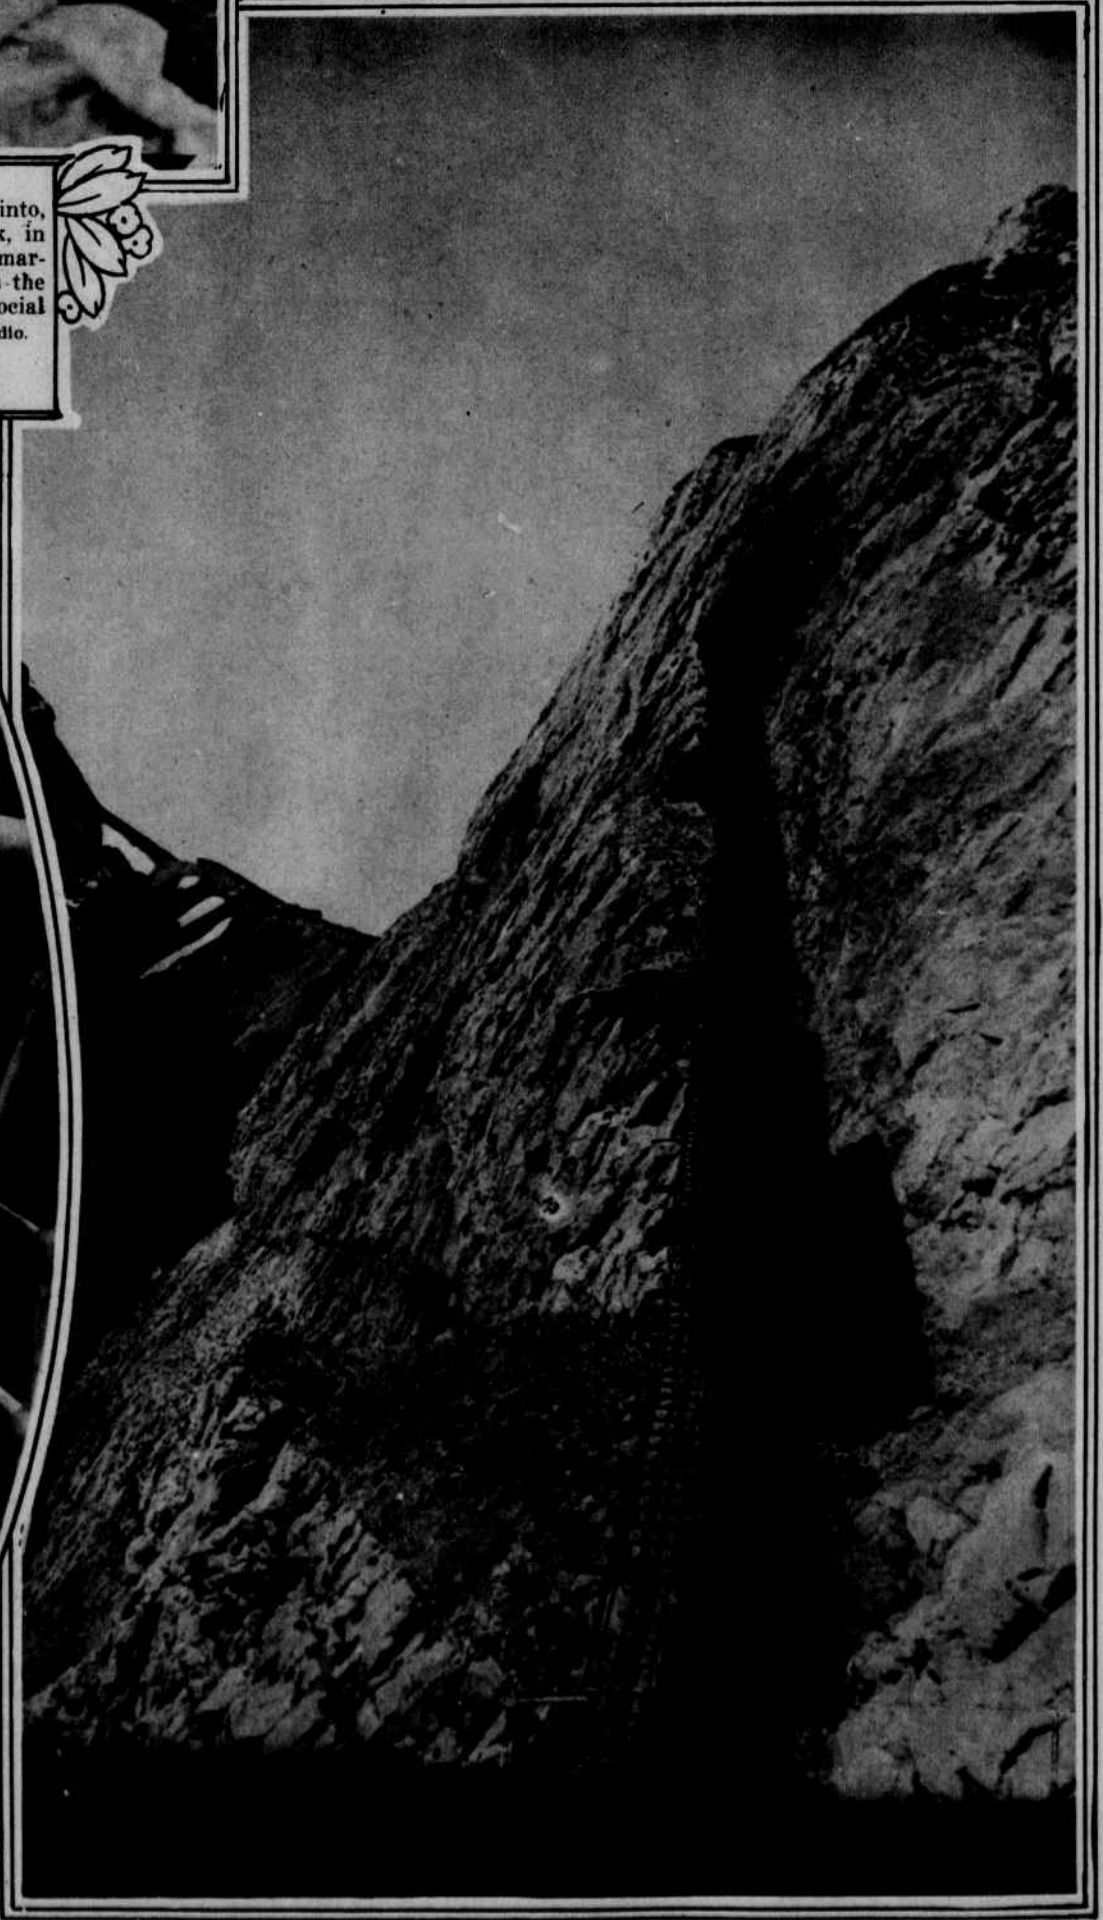

Miss Louise Homer, daughter of the famous opera singer. She will be married April 19 to Ernest Van R. Stires, a son of the Rev. Dr. and Mrs. Stires.
Copyright, Keystone View.

The Countess de Maupas, formerly Miss Consuelo Morgan, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Morgan, photographed aboard the Imperator just before sailing on her way to France.
Photo, International.

Five fast greyhounds, owned by San Francisco sportsmen and raced by them each Sunday over the Emeryville track, once devoted to horse racing. The young woman with the leashes is Miss Mildred Owens. Underwood & Underwood.

Climbing above the clouds by rail is the feat of man by means of the railway up Mount Pilatus, Switzerland. Unusual photograph showing car and tunnel.
Copyright, Keystone View.